The Governance Group becomes an official CDP partner

The Governance Group (TGG) has been accredited as a CDP silver consultancy partner for the Nordic region. CDP provides an environmental disclosure system and a network of trusted partners to support companies in improving disclosure and taking the necessary actions towards a sustainable economy.

- CDP is an important disclosure platform for investors and companies. Our job is to make sure that the data provided is correct and to help companies set and reach meaningful targets. This partnership marks a milestone for The Governance Group as a full-service provider of ESG solutions, TGG Partner Maria Gjølberg says.

- It gives us great pleasure to announce that The Governance Group has become a CDP-accredited climate change consultancy partner in the Nordics. With their expertise in environmental, social and governance risk and compliance, and experience in supporting clients with analysis, strategy and reporting, we are confident their services will be of great value to the companies responding to CDP, says CDP's Head of Partnerships, Paul Robins.
